

Those You Know

It's Fresh at Coffman's Cash Grocery Store.

S. P. Cole and family spent Sunday at Arcadia Heights.

Buy your Groceries at Coffman's, because it's fresh and the best.

Mr. Geo. Morris and family motored to Arcadia Heights Sunday.

Hon. W. L. Hensley spent last Friday at Arcadia on business.

Mr. F. Galvan, who resides near Esther, was in Farmington last Saturday.

John T. Burks of Charleston was a business visitor in Farmington this week.

Mr. E. E. Barker and wife were among those who motored to Arcadia Heights Sunday.

Coffman's flour, sugar and coffee are of the best and sell cheaper than anywhere else.

Mrs. Walter Burgess, wife of our affable blacksmith, has been on the sick list for several weeks.

Mrs. Reish Hamilton of Flat River spent Sunday visiting in the home of her sister, Mrs. Walter Burgess.

Charles Whitworth, now of Fredericktown, was in Farmington Monday shaking hands with his many friends.

Coffman's Grocery handles nothing but the leading and best brands of canned goods.

Mr. Perry McCormick, while here this week, purchased two fine Jersey cows from Mr. Wm. Kiel at a fancy price.

Mr. P. S. Cole and W. T. Haile motored over to Arcadia last Sunday and report an exceptionally fine sermon.

Mrs. D. K. Weslenhaver of Advance is visiting in the home of her daughter and family, Mrs. B. S. McCullough.

Geo. M. London and family motored to Arcadia Heights, where they attended the Sunday session of the B. Y. P. U.

Mr. G. O. Watts, the amiable operator at the Electric depot, visited Ste. Genevieve last Friday evening to attend to business.

Prof. Wood, President of the Stevens College of Columbia, visited Judge Clay and other friends in this city Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. J. M. Bailey, minister of the Christian church in this city, will preach at Sugar Grove school house next Sunday evening at 3 p. m.

Mr. Robert Tillman has rented his fine farm near Libertyville to his son and will move his family to Farmington. We welcome these splendid people to our city.

J. J. A. Hilgert, postmaster at Kimmswick, Mo., and wife motored to Farmington Saturday. They registered at the St. Francois Hotel. Mr. Hilgert is on his annual leave.

Mrs. Lena Burke and children of Blodgett, Mo., visited Dr. Branning and family last week. Mrs. Burke is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Burks, who formerly lived in our city.

Leon Haile, son of Oscar Haile, who has been attending school at Columbia, returned home Monday. Leon is one of Farmington's brightest young men and we predict a brilliant future for him.

Mr. Lynn Dobbins has accepted a position with the American Tobacco Company, and will go to Chicago this week to prepare for his new position. Lynn is one of Farmington's hustling young men.

Judge J. S. Clay reports the exchange of property between H. M. Welty and Mr. Geo. W. Graham, Mr. Graham trading a stock of goods for a house and lot in the south part of town belonging to Mr. Welty.

Dr. Cunningham and wife of Cape Girardeau stopped over last week in Farmington on his way to Bonne Terre to attend the funeral of Mrs. Louise Poston Price last week and visited with relatives.

Mr. J. L. Counts left last Sunday for a two or three weeks' visit to the West. He will spend his vacation visiting his three sons who reside in Colorado Springs. Mr. Counts may visit a few other points of interest before returning home.

Judge J. S. Clay was elected Supt. of the Christian Sunday School last Sunday. He fills the place recently held by Mr. Geo. Gale, who has lately moved to Flat River. Mr. J. J. Roberts, cashier of the St. Francois County Bank, was elected Secretary of the same Sunday school.

Our worthy citizen, Thos. H. Stam, has been troubled the past week with that dreaded company, "toothache", but the strangest thing in connection with his unwelcome company, is that it will not tolerate smoking, and this feature alone is of no little moment to Mr. Stam. We trust that a compromise may be effected.

Chas. Gierse, who is in business at Poplar Bluff, is at home visiting his mother this week.

Mrs. Gus Hemmelgarn, who has been visiting friends in Ste. Genevieve for the past week, returned home last Saturday.

Dr. S. W. Stophlet, minister of the Presbyterian church at Flat River, filled the pulpit of the Presbyterian church here last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry McCormick of Platin came down Saturday and visited friends and relatives here, returning last Monday.

Mr. Fritz Rickus, wife and children motored to Iron Mountain Lake last Sunday, where they are camping and spending a week fishing.

Johnny Kinneman reports a flourishing insurance business at Fredericktown. He expects to move there as soon as suitable quarters can be had.

Mrs. Florence Walker Mathews of Oran is visiting her parents, Judge and Mrs. E. E. Swink, of Farmington at their beautiful country home.

Mrs. J. M. Logsdon and Grandpa Logsdon of Morehouse have been visiting a few days in the home of the former's daughter, Mrs. Kinder.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chinn motored to Ste. Genevieve last Saturday to spend a couple of days with Mrs. Chinn's mother and returned Monday.

Dr. John B. Graves, wife and children spent last week with Mrs. Cleveland, mother of Mrs. Graves, on the farm near Doe Run, and report an enjoyable time.

James Hopkins, a prosperous young farmer just south of town, and who for a number of years was in business in Farmington, was seen on our streets Saturday.

John L. Simpson of Libertyville was in Farmington Saturday making arrangements to send his second daughter, Lucille, to the Farmington High School this fall.

Miss Violet Simpson of Libertyville took the examination for a teacher's license last Saturday. She is undecided whether she will teach, enter High School or College.

Mr. Paul Williams, one of Libertyville's prominent farmers and stockmen, sold a fine Jersey cow and calf to Col. E. T. Noland last Friday for a little less than one hundred dollars.

Thos. Cunningham of Rural Route No. 2 was transacting business in Farmington Saturday of last week. He stated to a Times reporter that from 32 acres he threshed 540 bushels of wheat.

Lester Presnell of near Libertyville has successfully passed the teacher's examination. Mr. Presnell will teach in Perry county. Lester is a fine young man and we wish him success in his chosen profession.

C. R. Whitworth, who was formerly engaged in the butcher business in this city, was seen on our streets last Saturday. Mr. Whitworth has been writing insurance in the north part of the state for the past several weeks.

Mr. John W. Hibbitts of Desloge, a prominent citizen of that city, was in Farmington last Friday on business. Mr. Hibbitts has served efficiently as Deputy Sheriff in that township and is a possible aspirant to the office of Sheriff in the coming campaign.

Jacob Alper, who has conducted a general merchandise business in Flat River for many years, sold his business there to Miller Brothers of St. Louis last week, and will leave for California soon, where he will join his brother, Sam, who is in business there.

Mr. Wm. McCormick and family from Alabama, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Watt McCormick, is here spending a few weeks with his mother. Mr. William left here about fifteen years ago and has been very successful, at present having under his management several large stores in Alabama.

The Farmington Times is going to give some young woman or young man a $25.00 Scholarship in the Jackson University of Business. This UNIVERSITY is situated in the beautiful city of Chillicothe, Mo. If you want to earn this scholarship, call and see us. It will require only a little time and some effort to obtain it.

Mr. T. J. Short, superintendent of the County Infirmary, dropped into our office a few minutes last Saturday and informed us that he had tendered his resignation as superintendent of the Infirmary, to take effect October 1st. Mr. Short will engage in the poultry business, exclusively, at his residence opposite the State Hospital just as soon as his resignation becomes effective.

Miss Martha Raines is visiting friends at Fredericktown.

Geo. K. Williams and A. O. Nichols motored to St. Louis Tuesday.

We are sorry to say Mr. F. P. Graves is not as well as he has been.

M. A. Rhodes and family are moving into the Neidert property this week.

Prof. Geo. Raines is conducting a vocal school of music at Fredericktown.

Mrs. N. D. Bail of Poplar Bluff is visiting Mrs. L. C. Barroll of our city.

J. E. Cunningham of Route No. 2 was transacting business in our city Wednesday.

Mr. M. P. Cayce and wife left last Monday for a two-weeks' visit at French Lake.

Carr Hartshorn, a prominent business man of Elvins, spent Tuesday in Farmington.

Mr. Chas. Pratt and son left Tuesday for California to attend the Panama Exposition.

Miss Unice Morris is spending a few days visiting with Miss Virginia Bailey of our city.

Hons. W. L. Hensley and B. H. Marbury went to St. Louis yesterday to attend to legal business.

Dr. John Clark of Perryville spent a few hours in Farmington Wednesday on his road to Flat River.

County School Superintendent Joseph King, of Ste. Genevieve, was in our city yesterday on business.

Mr. Emel Klein left Wednesday for his plantation in Penobscot county to look after his splendid crops.

A large number of people from the country and neighboring towns attended the funeral of Prof. A. H. Akers.

Mrs. Howard Washburn and sons left Sunday for Virginia for an extended visit among relatives and friends.

Mrs. C. L. Stubbs and son, Charles, Jr., of Blodgett, Mo., are visiting Mrs. S. C. Watts and daughter of our city this week.

Assessor L. O. Wells, L. K. Williams and G. M. London motored over to Arcadia Wednesday to attend the Baptist Assembly.

Mr. J. D. Turley of Route No. 1 spent Wednesday visiting in the home of his sister, Mrs. Thomas Swearingen, of Route No. 2.

At 2:30 o'clock p. m. Thursday, the Harmony Club of Farmington rendered a very delightful musical program at Arcadia Heights.

Miss Willa Buck, who has been in Columbia, Mo., for the last year, returned home Wednesday to spend her vacation with friends and relatives here.

Harold Macurdy, son of Dr. Macurdy, who returned home a few weeks ago and immediately took down with fever, is reported getting along nicely.

Mr. Russell Doss reports the sale of two Monroe runabouts this week. One to Atty. F. A. Benham and the other to Mr. Shelt Horn of Bonne Terre.

Mr. Thos. Ross, who has been attending the Central High School in St. Louis, is here spending his vacation with the family of Mr. and Mrs. Henry McLarne.

The many friends of Mr. Joseph Cover will be pleased to know he was able to be down on the streets last Wednesday, shaking hands and conversing with friends.

The family of Mr. Lawrence Wells, who are spending the summer in the West, will return home the latter part of this month. We understand that Mrs. Wells is much improved in health.

Atty. Felix Poston returned home

Church Notices

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN CHURCH
H. Hallberg, Pastor.

Eleventh Sunday after Trinity.
Services will be as follows:

Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.
English preaching service at 11:30 a. m. Subject of sermon: "The Duty of a Christian Congregation Toward Children."

German preaching service at 7:30 p. m. Subject of sermon: "A Lesson in Missions."

A cordial welcome to all.

M. E. CHURCH, SOUTH

J. R. A. Vaughan, Pastor.
9:30 a. m., Sunday school.

11:00 a. m., preaching.
7:00 p. m., Epworth League.

8:00 p. m., preaching.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Subject of lesson sermon: "Soul." Golden text: Isaiah 25:9.

Services are held each Sunday morning at 11 o'clock in the new Tuley building in the halls of the Schubert School of Music.

All are welcome.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Bible school at 10 a. m. We want you at Bible school, for we are pushing it. Come and help push.

Preaching at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Morning subject will be: "Manhood More than Gold."

Prayer service Wednesday, 8 p. m. A welcome to all.

J. M. Bailey, Pastor.

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, Lucas County.

Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS for each and every case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of HALL'S CATARRH CURE.

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 5th day of December, A. D. 1915.

(Seal) A. W. GLEASON, Notary Public.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials, free.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Tuesday from Webb City, Mo., to pack up his household goods, preparatory to moving there. Mr. Poston is a good lawyer, and we wish him success in his new field.

Editor Allen of the Record, which he publishes at New Madrid, stopped a few minutes in our city last Wednesday on his return from St. Louis.

Bro. Allen paid The Times man a short visit which was highly appreciated.

Prof. Cecil Hughes of near Libertyville, who has been taking special work at the Columbia University, returned to Flat River last Friday.

After shaking hands with many of his old friends there and at Farmington, he will spend a short vacation visiting homefolks. The young professor has made a splendid record and in recognition of his ability the East Flat River ward school will be in his charge the coming year.

For many years the Springfield Business College has been the leader, giving thorough training in business pursuits. Actual practice in Accounting and Banking, Civil Service, Telegraphy, Secretarial and Teachers' Courses. Has trained thousands of America's successful business men. Open all the year. Students may enter any day. Situations guaranteed. Can place 200 telegraphers this year. Ask for particulars.

Mr. FARMER AND BUSINESS MAN Consider a Minute

Any Bank will receive your deposit. It's to your interest to select a Bank giving absolute safety and possessing strength and reliability, with insurance against burglary. Our officers keep in close touch with all interests and requirements of this community. We strive to help our depositors by lending every possible financial assistance consistent with good banking. See us before making deposit.

St. Francois County Bank

Mr. H. N. Silsby of Paragould, Ark., a son of F. K. Silsby and formerly cashier of the Bank of Elvins, is here on a vacation of two weeks visiting friends and relatives at Elvins, Flat River and Farmington.

Mr. Silsby reports business fine and a bright outlook for an exceptionally good fall trade. He is engaged in the general merchandise business there, and says there is every prospect for a bumper crop of cotton; that Paragould has four cotton gins and is a growing business city.

Mr. M. S. Gardner, the oldest son of Attorney Gardner, of our city and now associated with the Provident Life and Trust Insurance Co. of St. Louis, visited relatives and friends here the latter part of last week. He, in company with Mr. Silver of the St. Francois Co. Mktg. Association, and Mr. Michner and son, returned to St. Louis via the Auto last Saturday.

Mr. Silver expects to transact important business in connection with the Marketing Association while in the city.

Barroll's Orchestra, composed of ten pieces, entertained our people at a public concert on last Friday night. Special arrangements were made on the Public Square for the occasion.

The rendition of "The Poet and Peasant" overtures met with unusual approval. Many insisted that Mr. Barroll render the same selection again to-night and he consented to their wishes. Concert begins at 8:30 prompt.

Here's hoping that the "Tumbleton Brand" may continue to grow in popularity.

CANNING FACTORY ESTABLISHED AT BISMARCK

Mr. Tumbleton, a young progressive business man of Bismarck, has recently established a canning factory there. Bismarck is well located relative to fruit districts and has the necessary railroad facilities for importation and marketing of the goods. We are certain that the citizens of Bismarck appreciate the progressive spirit of their fellow-townsmen, Mr. Tumbleton.

PUBLIC ENTERTAINMENT

Barroll's Orchestra, composed of ten pieces, entertained our people at a public concert on last Friday night. Special arrangements were made on the Public Square for the occasion.

The rendition of "The Poet and Peasant" overtures met with unusual approval. Many insisted that Mr. Barroll render the same selection again to-night and he consented to their wishes. Concert begins at 8:30 prompt.

DR. E. V. LAMB AND WIFE

Of Warrensburg, Mo., Visits the Lead Belt and Farmington.

It will be remembered that Dr. Lamb served the Baptist people of Flat River as their minister for a number of years, and it was with deep regret that they were forced to part with his services.

The Doctor and wife spent last Thursday visiting in the home of G. M. London of our city. Rev. Lamb is now an evangelist under the direction of the Southern Baptist Convention.

RURAL ROUTE NO. 4

Quite a few farmers on Route No. 4 threshed wheat the latter part of last week and the first of this week, among whom were Messrs. Jim Cunningham, Alfred Kregel, C. C. Cunningham, Alfred Mitchell, Agnew and others. The average yield is far better than had been expected, especially in the fore part of the summer.

Mrs. M. A. Rhodes and children of Farmington have been visiting a few days in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cunningham.

Lawrence Cunningham had a very narrow escape Wednesday. While riding through a woods pasture, his mare slipped and fell, catching his left arm and leg beneath the animal. His limbs are quite painful from the fall.

Mrs. C. H. Cunningham is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Crumpton, of Route No. 1, Bonne Terre, this week.

For Sale—At a bargain, pleasant home in East Ironton, on Bickey Lane. Address Mrs. H. Ferdinand, 4435 North Hamilton Avenue, Chicago, Ill. 24-10

RECOMMENDS CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY

"I never hesitate to recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Sol Williams, Merchant, Jeane, Tenn. "I sell more of it than of any other preparations of like character. I have used it myself and found it gave me more relief than anything else that I have ever tried for the same purpose." Obtainable everywhere. (adv.)

Miss Lorene Fleming of St. Louis is visiting relatives here this week.

Francis Naegel and Driscoll Barter of St. Louis are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Corcoran, here this week.

Mrs. John Corcoran of Stono was visiting Mrs. Kriminger here Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Holly, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Faulkner were called to Mine La Motte Thursday on account of the serious illness of the former's father and the latter's brother, Wm. Holly, Sr.

"That miserable pain—don't you want relief?"

Close attention to work is the cause of much Pain and many Headaches. Obtain relief by taking one or two DR. MILES' ANTI-PAIN PILLS

Then tone up the Nervous System by using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine

AWFUL SUFFERING. "I suffered untold agony with neuralgia. I thought I would go mad with pain. A friend of mine advised me to take Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. I did so and the pain stopped almost at once. Then I commenced using Dr. Miles' Nervine and before long I was so that I did not have those pains any more." E. J. WINTER, 561 E. Platte Ave., Colorado Springs, Colo.

IF FIRST BOTTLE, OR BOX, FAILS TO HELP YOU, YOUR MONEY WILL BE REFUNDED.

SACRIFICE

For sale—Lot 6, block 1, J. H. York's Division, Arcadia Heights, 5 acres. Make offer. Address W. H. EGAN, 1107 Carroll St., Brooklyn, N. Y.